

MOA Uniform Change for Football

The MOA has approved the following uniform change for the 2009 football season on a trial basis:

Black officiating pants may be worn in place of the traditional knickers if worn by the entire crew.

Here is a picture of the only approved officiating pants for the 2009 football season:

No other brand or style of pants will be allowed, unless they meet the specifications and are approved by the MOA office.

Ordering Information:

- On-line at www.gerrydavis.com
- By phone at Gerry Davis Sports
 - Toll free at 800.916.9088